

BETA LED PROJECT OVERVIEW

Veterinary Emergency Service: Madison, WI

WHEN BEING GREEN MEANS BEING SAFE, TOO

“We are committed to being as green as we can. But at the same time, we needed a brightly lit parking lot so our mostly female staff can feel comfortable when walking pets at two-in-the-morning.”

—Chris Schriever, VES Hospital Administrator

Project Summary

End User:	Veterinary Emergency Service (Madison, WI)
Application:	Parking lot lights
Product:	THE EDGE™ Type III Full Cutoff five-light bar LED area Luminaires
Benefits:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Anticipated energy savings of nearly 40%• Provides better lighting and improved safety for mostly female staff• Beta LEDs do not contain toxic mercury commonly found in fluorescent or HID lamps

